SDA YOUR WAY

Living with Enliven

Who we are

Enliven Housing is an SDA housing provider with a twist. We live and breathe housing and we have extensive experience in property management. We know how to do repairs and maintenance well but most importantly, our business is firmly based on a human rights-led approach to tenancy management. Your tenancy rights are a given at Enliven Housing.

We offer a range of SDA enrolled housing options from apartments to houses and villas and we're strong advocates for ensuring that your voice is heard and listened to. We know that this is your home and we do everything we can to ensure that you're the decision maker and you choose how you live, where you live, with whom you live with and how you're supported to live the life you want.

What we offer

Your home, your choice

Do you want to live where you want with whom you want?

Live life to the fullest

Are you looking to live in an amazing location close to amenities, transport and with a fabulous community energy?

Your support, your way

Do you want choice and control over who your support provider is, how they support you and how you can manage, measure and monitor their performance?

Your ideal living arrangement

Do you want to live by yourself, with a friend or family member or perhaps in an Individualised Living Options (ILO) arrangement?

If you've answered 'yes' to the above questions, then we might be the housing provider for you.

Living with Enliven

Live your way

We offer you the opportunity to:

- Live alone and share some supports (our apartments and villas)
- Share with one other and share some or all supports (our houses)
- Live alone and share no supports (ILO apartments and villas)

Whichever option you choose, rest assured you will have the opportunity to decide who provides your support.

One of the things we offer and are incredibly proud of is our innovative Choice Collective. This is how we make choice and control come alive in any Enliven Housing property

At Enliven housing, we firmly believe that only you can make your house feel like a home. Which is why 'SDA your way' is more than a tagline for us, it's a promise that you'll be at the center of the decision-making process right throughout your SDA journey with us.
